

PRESS RELEASE:

For additional information contact:

Camellia A. Blackwell-Taffel, Ph.D.

Office 410-730-6008 or mobile: 410-302-5926

www.icadev.org

Email: cab@icadev.org

International Center For Artistic Development, Inc.

In Collaboration with the

Maryland Institute College of Art

Presents

SUSTAINABLE LIFESTYLES A Global Perspective

ICAD/MICA Alumni & Friends Art Exhibition

The exhibition will take place at the MICA Wellness Center located at 1501 Mt. Royal Avenue, Baltimore, MD 21217. The Opening reception date is Thursday, July 25th at 6PM to 8:30 PM. There will be an Artists' Talk on Saturday, August 17th at 1PM to 3PM. To attend, please RSVP to 410-302-5926. The artworks will be on display beginning July 1, 2013 – August 23, 2013. The viewing hours are Monday – Friday, 9AM to 5PM.

This exhibition is a collaborative effort produced and sponsored by ICAD and MICA, the Maryland Institute College of Art to recognize and honor alumni whose outstanding life endeavors and accomplishments reflect the creative experience and excellence that was instilled during their matriculation. The proud MICA Alumni and friends participating in this exhibition have graduations years extending over nearly four decades. They are all active members of ICAD.

The distinguished artists presenting their works are: Camellia A. Blackwell-Taffel, '77, Matt Fenton P, '11, Nathaniel Kato Gibbs, '75, Tommy Roberts, '86, and Leah J. Taylor, '92.

(ICAD), International Center For Artistic Development, Inc. is a 501 C (3) non-profit, fine arts education and cultural arts organization devoted to promoting the arts through public programs for diverse audiences of the world. To encourage personal and professional growth of artists and art enthusiasts, projects such as art exhibitions, lectures, workshops, and cultural exchanges are produced by ICAD in collaboration and partnership with school systems, colleges, universities, museums, art galleries, and art centers, locally, nationally, and internationally.

####

